HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '79

In 1967, we started up education's long ladder. After skimming through the first eight years, we arrived at the greatest moment of our lives. With eighth grade diplomas clutched in our hands, we find ourselves riding the buses through the gates and over the speed bumps into a new environment, "The Gryphon Territory".

We started the ninth grade with a weird feeling. Everything was new to us but we soon got used to the rules and regulations under which our days were to be conducted. We were warmly accepted by everyone. Soon, we learned how to find our way around the many long corridors in time to make it to class.

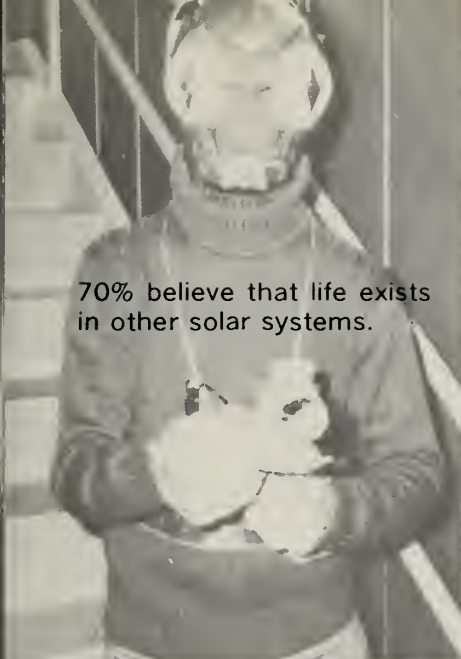

Tenth grade came quickly and things became rough. We chose which shop we wanted most and began learning a trade. We met people who gave us the much needed advice and help to begin to take life and ourselves more seriously.

Upon entering the eleventh grade we realized there is more to school life than just attending classes. We tried to become involved in our lives at school through electing class officers and having class meetings. Suddenly before our eyes, all of the steps which had seemed so long became short ones filled with memories. Now we realize that we are the Seniors. This title long awaited is finally here and gone before we know it. The super advising of Mrs. Howe and Mrs. Conole, whom we will always remember and appreciate, helped us through rough and exciting times. We are the first Senior Class to complete the full four years in this beautiful school. We are the only class that went three years all year-round. All our high school days are finished now, and we are prepared to meet life's challenges. Though the days here we've spent together have passed, we shall continue up life's roadways with the memories of four happy years spent together.

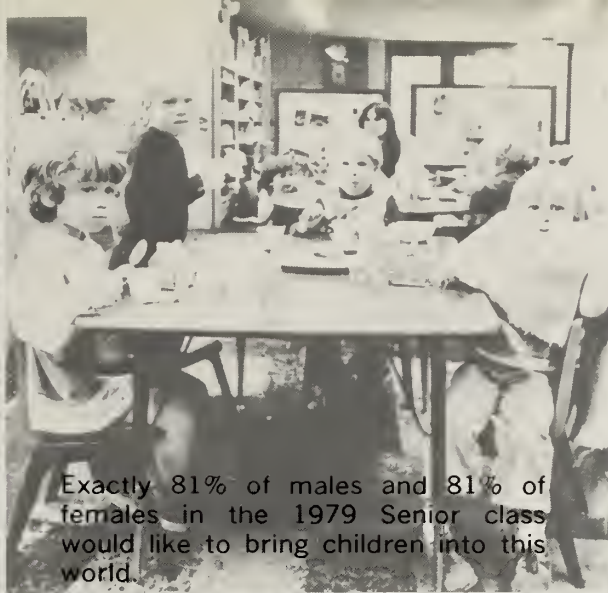

We all hope that we will be as successful in the future as we have been in the past.

Dedication

We dedicate this Yearbook to Joseph Kane, Physical Education teacher, head football coach and freshmen basketball coach, with sincere appreciation and recognition of his fairness, contagious school spirit, great sense of humor and ability to make learning enjoyable.

Coach Kane has initiated and continues to develop many successful sports programs of which the students are very proud.

This is our salute to an unforgettable teacher who is definitely one-of-a-kind.

A little thank you to Mr. Lynch
He made our injuries seem such a cinch.

He taped our ankles, set up the whirlpool
He made it possible to play sports for our school.

He was always there through thick and thin
Whether we broke a leg or scratched a chin.

We're all so grateful, you've been so kind
Thanks to you from the Class of '79.

Junior Varsity Soccer

J.V. Soccer offers the beginner the opportunity to become a good soccer player by playing and observing those who know the sport. The purpose is teamwork through individual effort. It is played by more people internationally than any other sport. Here at the Voke, the J.V. Soccer team provides a way to the learning experience of soccer.

The Spikers

Clockwise: Maureen Courchaine, Diana Dean, Maureen Coyle, Cheryl Brown, Carmen Correa, Michelle Dalpe, Migdalia Martinez, Evelyn Santos, Damaris Padilla, Nidia Martinez, Darmary Cano, Jackie Santos. Center: Coach Theresa Shelzi, Captain Wanda Martin.

A small group of dedicated players helped launch the first Volleyball Team at the Voke this past Fall. Most of the season was spent improving and practicing skills. The one game played against an outside team found our players chalking up a victory. We look forward to expanding our schedule next year and, even more important, continuing to have fun.

Challenge of Strength

Weight lifting (training) is a sport which demands dedication, hard physical work and pain. The benefits are realized quickly; muscular weight gain, stronger joints and muscles, muscular endurance and self-confidence. However, none of the above are possible unless the weight training is combined with the proper rest and proper high protein diet.

Here at the Voke, Coach John Payelian has been successful in conducting afternoon weight training sessions three days a week.

The Gryphonettes . . .

a bevy of beauties! We are a dozen in number, unending in enthusiasm, abounding in energy, able to leap into action at a toss of the coin, or a toss of the basketball.

Faculty and Administration

adds life.

Superintendent's message

High school years are marked by many milestones. Your first day in a new school, your first date, your first time driving a car and, now, your first time on your own as a graduate of the finest technical school in the Nation and, hopefully, your first real job as a tradesperson.

Just think of how you have changed and grown in the richness of these new "first-time" experiences. The novelty of life has an accelerated pace during your school days and the lessons you have learned in living with one another will probably prove themselves more valuable than all the theory you studied and all the skill you built in your systematic pursuit of a technical education. Learning to get along with your peers and your bosses is the surest way to find some degree of happiness and job satisfaction in a world filled with disappointment and frustration. The funny thing is that you don't learn this in the media you study or in lectures during class. You learn this only by experiencing for yourself what it is like to care for people besides yourself in the giving and taking from the people around you.

Greater Lowell Regional was an opportunity for each of you to become part of a large and vibrant organization. You made acquaintances, friends and enemies, and learned or failed to learn about life in a microcosm of the outside world you are now joining. You made your mistakes and reveled in your accomplishments. Greater Lowell Regional has been a testing ground for living and now it is time for you to take your place among your peers in business and in industry. Only time will tell if what you learned is of any value in personal terms. You may have developed all the skills, you may understand all the theory, but 50 years from now, I hope you will reflect on your days as G.L.R.V.T.S. and realize where you learned to take responsibility for your own actions and to get along with all kinds of people.

Linda Duran adds life to . . . apple farming, beekeeping, skiing woodchopping and many other ways of plain old country living.

Linda received her B.A. in Mathematics from Anna Maria College, taught Science at North Middlesex Regional, and Science and Math at Mascenic Regional in New Ipswich, N. H.. In between jobs, Linda skied and taught skiing in Colorado. During the past two years, she has designed and resurrected a cow barn into her house.

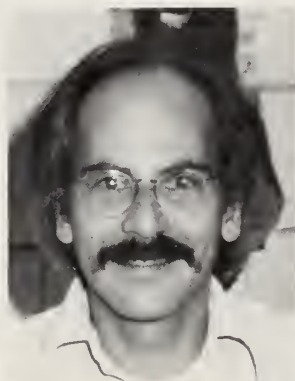

Here at Greater Lowell, students appreciate Linda's genuine concern in their pursuit of Math. Her Math class reflects this attitude . . . which proves . . . Linda adds life to Voke!

Kerry Cavallaro adds life to . . . all those lucky seniors in her English class!

Kerry comes to the Voke by way of Tyngsboro Jr. High. She was involved in the early planning of our school, participating in workshops and meetings back in 1971 and 1972, before the school existed. She has also taught at Natick High and Westborough High.

Kerry is actively involved in the Women's Rights movement. She is a member of the Massachusetts Women Caucus and she is also a liason for women rights between our school and the State Department of Education.

Outside of school Kerry loves to ride horses, sail and spend time hiking with her dog Gabiland.

Teaching English to the seniors, helping them find jobs proves . . . Kerry adds life to Voke!

Peter Marlowe adds life to . . .
the art of working with wood!

Peter graduated from Wentworth Institute and is a former evening instructor in carpentry at Wentworth Institute.

Here at the Voke, Peter teaches Carpentry Related to juniors and seniors, is carpentry advisor for V.I.C.A., and is presently teaching night school.

Peter feels overall control in class is not due to strictness, but mutual respect between student and teacher. Individual motivation is channelled into technical excellence . . . which proves . . . Peter adds life to Voke!

Bill May adds life to . . .
drawing, airbrush, photography
and commercial art!
Bill studied Commercial and Fine

Art at the Whitney School. He has 24 years experience as Staff Artist and Art Director with Avco Publishing. To keep up with the latest trends in advertising, Bill works part time as airbrush and commercial artist.

In the classroom, Bill May demands professional performance from his students who contribute signs and commercial artwork to the school newspaper and other publications. He has offered constructive criticism in matters pertaining to Yearbook layout and photography and our staff is appreciative of his comments . . .
which proves . . . Bill adds life to Voke!

Cathy Morse adds life to . . .
swimming, and proves the wet head is alive!

Brought up in New York City, Cathy began swimming at the age of 12. Her prowess at swimming earned her the title New York City's Outstanding Athlete in 1964; while in 1965 she was named New York States outstanding swimmer. In 1967 she was named to the United States High School All-American Team and at this time Cathy held 31 swimming records in the states of Conn., N.J., and N.Y..

Cathy continued her winning ways in college. She was on the Springfield College Varsity Team. While in college she held six New England records and was named All-American in two events.

Cathy continues to be active in swimming by coaching the Gryphon swim team. However, Cathy has many other interests as well. She is an avid road runner, loves the ballet and spends the remainder of her time at her lovely home in Groton with her dog, Grabs.

Students in the swimming and diving program certainly agree . . . Cathy adds life to Voke!

Carol Shabouian adds life to . . .
the art of the printing world!

When Carol was 16, he apprenticed under his father as a barber in what is now a historical building in Lowell at Towers Corner. Serving in the U.S. Navy for five years, Carol has travelled to such places as Rio de Janeiro, Chile, Rome, Africa and Hong Kong. The last five years that Carol worked for the Courier Citizen Co., he was pre-press manager of the color division.

The reason Carol turned to teaching was that he saw an opportunity to make students more knowledgeable in the art of printing. New skills and an eager mind are needed to meet the ever-changing technical advancements in printing today.

He must be doing something right, for the printing department has seen many students assume co-op positions with good results . . . which proves . . . Carol Shabouian adds life to Voke!

Eleanor Royte adds life to . . . self-awareness and growth, psychology, human consciousness-raising, acting and dancing!

Eleanor obtained her Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education from Bard College and Adelphi, and her Master's degree in Supervision and Administration from the University of Lowell. She was the director of the Child Study Center at Simmons College.

Here at Greater Lowell, Eleanor teaches Child Care Related, the "why's and how-to's" of helping children develop. Having three teenage children, Eleanor can offer an experienced view in her new course, Life Styles. She deals with students in a caring, realistic manner offering honesty in matters of family living, parenting, and sex education.

We seniors who have experienced this course feel that we have a better understanding of ourselves, parents and peers . . . which proves . . . Eleanor Royte adds life to Voke!

Theresa Shelzi adds life to . . .
the Bilingual Department!

After graduating from college, she and her husband spent five years in the Yucatan Peninsula of Mexico doing Community Development work. Here she and her husband worked in the midst of a primitive society, a residue of the ancient Mayan civilization.

While in Mexico her first three children were born. After her eighth child, she started to work on her Master's degree. At the same time, she ran a Nursery/Kindergarten at her home for five years. She has since completed her second Master's degree.

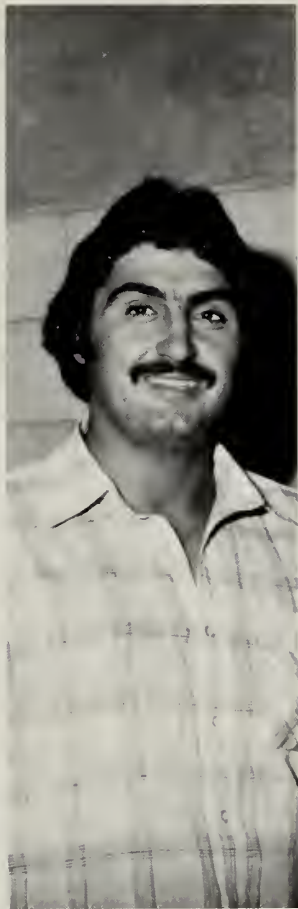

Locally, Theresa is now teaching Conversational Spanish to the Supervisory Personnel at Joan Fabrics. She has also worked as a consultant for several government bilingual projects.

By bringing to Greater Lowell an exposure and understanding of the Spanish culture . . . Theresa adds life to Voke!

Bob Regan adds life . . . with people like Vincent Price, Billy Crystal from Soap, Janet Langhart and us!

After leaving the Graduate School of Public Communications at Boston University, Bob produced for WCVB-TV, Boston's ABC affiliate. From the sets of Sunday Open House, Local telethons, and the First Annual New England/Boston Emmy Awards, Bob earned his position in the Boston television market.

Here at the Voke, he began producing a nine minute daily broadcast called WORK News Center.

Doing remotes daily with students, giving broadcast quality and originality to our network proves . . . Bob adds life to Voke!

adds life...

The Business Club members are students who come from the Business Tech, Data Processing, and Distributive Education Shops. Money making activities include selling the famous "Lowell Vo-Tech" bumper stickers, raffles and dances. Money is directed toward a scholarship awarded to a member of the club and presented at a President's Banquet at the end of the year.

We are proud to say that we have an active, enthusiastic membership, always willing to work.

The "Tradesman Review" began in August of 1978. Six weeks later, our first issue was on the newstand. Students in Commercial Art, Printing and Business operate the newspaper. Responsibility and leadership are qualities our staff looks for in electing editors. We all hope to be reading the Tradesmen Review for many years to come.

D.E.C.A. is the only national club program directly affiliated with Distributive Education. The Distributive Education Clubs of America support the idea that the total process of education does not take place in the classroom alone and real learning is an extension of the classroom.

The D.E.C.A. Competitive Events program provides students with the opportunity and incentive to go beyond the classroom and earn awards and recognition for themselves, their family and their school. Each year fund raising dances, raffles, and special promotions help finance our competitive activities on the local, state and national levels.

In Competition

One could say the spirit of "Voke adds life" was born during a brainstorming session held one summer's day in Ms. LaRock's handbuilt teepee. From there, the staff has presented a slide show to the seniors, attended workshops, silkscreened t-shirts, made T.V. commercials and developed an overall spirit of enthusiasm never to be forgotten by the class of 79.

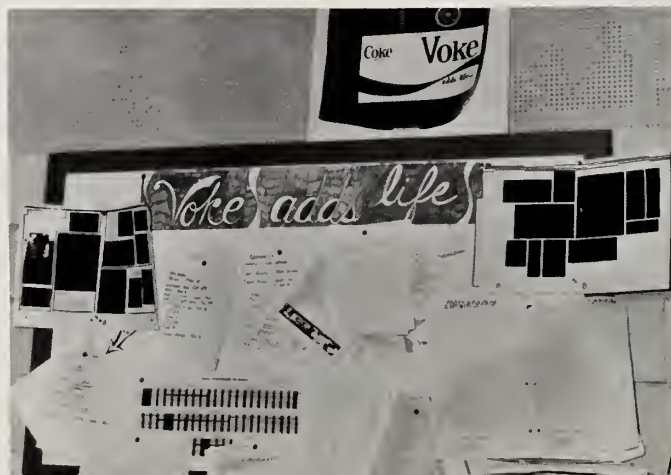

Our success is due to the enthusiasm generated by our staff; an aggressive, assertive, power-packed group of students with a die-hard attitude.

Oh, yes . . . we also produced this yearbook.

Chorus and Drama Club, under the direction of Mrs. Sisson, is a club consisting of very dedicated and talented students whose participation has made their performances very enjoyable to the public. On many occasions the Chorus and Drama Clubs worked hand-in-hand doing musicals, radio hours, plays, assemblies and pep rallies to boost the spirits of the students in our school.

Every year that passes we have to say good bye to our senior members; we will miss them, but they will always have the memories and friends they have gained through membership in our club.

Concert Band

The Concert Band and Combo, under the direction of Mr. Goumas, is a group of volunteer musicians who donate their time and talent both during and after school hours. The bands perform twice yearly: once in the Christmas Concert and at the Spring Concert.

Many times during the year our bands are called upon to do performances at the Burlington Mall and at other schools. Once every year we go to Fort Devens to be evaluated by professional musicians and we always come back with many compliments.

Each year the school classes gain momentum. This year's Junior Class is just such a product of this momentum of spirit and youth. With the election of some vibrant students as class officers, the Junior Class sponsors several fund raising events such as a Thanksgiving Turkey Raffle and a Holiday Movie Day. Our Christmas project is the sale of postcards that are designed by David Rivard, and printed by the students. A Junior Class trip is planned to Washington, D.C. at the end of the year.

The Senior Planning Committee has been in existence for the past three years, composed of approximately forty students who plan and carry out the Senior events of the school year. Working in cooperation with other club activities and classes, fund raisers are planned. These include movies, flea markets, rock concerts and tootsie pop days. The big events being planned this year are a Spring Carnival and a class trip to Florida.

Senior Planning Committee

Student Council

The purpose of the Student Council is to represent the student body in promoting better understanding between the students, faculty and administration.

We serve the community by sponsoring "toys for tots" and the canned food drive for families in need. Other activities include running the concession stand at football games, having student exchange days with other vocational schools, and participating in the Youth Advisory Councils of Massachusetts.

The television performance club had its beginning because of a need to develop on-air talent for W.O.R.K. News Center. With extensive closed circuit studio experience in planning and presenting educational and commercial material, this organization concentrates itself on a high level of professionalism, geared for students interested in broadcasting.

The Hams

The Amateur Radio Club was founded by Frank Blanchette in the early spring of 1978 for the purpose of getting students to enjoy Amateur Radio as a hobby.

Morse code and technical information must be studied in order to pass the exam necessary for obtaining a license from the F.C.C.. Some projects that Hams are involved in are: teletypewriter communications, mobile communications using club "repeater" stations, and communicating via "satellite bounce".

We hope that this club will prosper with time and result in a GLRVTS Alumni Amateur Radio Club.

... and you can be sure that if Thursday common lunch is tuna roll, that Friday lunch is haddockburger. Congratulations, for you have made it through your exploratory days to, hopefully, discovering and developing your saleable skill. You must have a shade of optimism, or few of you would have made it through the 45-15, locked bathroom doors, or those fire drills that always seem to occur during your 18 minute lunch period. ... You must be tolerant and patient, for tomorrow you will be freshmen again this time there will be no L.A.P. to guide you nor will you be issued a testing pass for each exam ...

Nothing ever comes to an end.
Wherever one has sunk roots that emanate from one's best
or truest self,
one will always find a home.
